

Lacks begining - The Lofty Sky (1915)

Even the tench has days
When he floats up and plays
Among the lily leaves
And sees the sky, or grieves
Not if he nothing sees:
While I, I know that trees
Under the lofty sky
Are weeds, fields mud, and I
Would arise and go far
To where the lilies are.